

An Independent Licensee of the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Association

April 2019

Learn How Your Productivity Can Soar When Providing Medical Attachments

Preparing and sending medical attachments for claims can take hours to complete. Scanning, printing, mailing, and waiting are all time-consuming tasks. Now you can reduce the effort involved while shortening your accounts receivables (A/R) lifecycle by using the Medical Record Attachment Tool located in Availity^{®1}. Learn more about this tool in an upcoming free live webinar.

Free Webinar: Medical Record Attachment Tool

May 21, 2019 from 3 p.m. – 4 p.m. ET

June 18, 2019 from 3 p.m. – 4 p.m. ET

Reserve your spot today because space is limited!

How to register:

1. Log in to Availity.com and click Help & Training | Get Trained.
2. Select Sessions, and then scroll to Your Calendar to locate your webinar.
3. Select View Course and then click Enroll.

You'll learn how to:

- Receive confirmation that we retrieved your documentation
- Streamline your processes and improve your A/R cycle
- Fulfill requirements a Risk Adjustment Data Validation (RADV) audit.

More and more payers like Florida Blue are pushing for electronic submissions. With the Medical Record Attachment Tool, you can view and track information submitted, including the date and time of your responses, without changing your workflow.

Don't stay bogged down in time-consuming tasks. Let us help you improve your workflow and seamlessly transition to electronic attachments. We look forward to helping you reduce paper clutter and save you time and money! Register for a webinar today.

¹Availity, LLC is a multi-payer joint venture company. For more information or to register, visit availity.com.