

February 16, 2018

Florida Blue Offers Support and Grief Counseling to Parkland Community

Florida Blue, in partnership with New Directions Behavioral Health, is offering support to individuals and loved ones affected by the school shooting that occurred on February 14, 2018, in Parkland, Florida. Regardless of Florida Blue membership, anyone in the community who needs support can call a 24-hour help line to speak free of charge to a specially trained behavioral health counselor in either English or Spanish. The number is 800-843-6514.

A bilingual grief counselor also will be available in person at the Ft. Lauderdale-area Florida Blue Center located at 1970 Sawgrass Mills Circle in Sunrise. Counselors will be onsite Friday, February 16, 2018, from 1:45 p.m. – 4:45 p.m. and on Saturday, February 17, 2018, from 9 a.m. – 11 a.m.
